Bombardment of Paris Imposed.

New York, Dec. 20.

The Herald's Bousell correspondent telegraphs this morning that the bombardment of Paris is declared to be impossible. It is not humanity which restrains the Prussians, but it is simply impossible to succeed, as they have neither the number of guns nor the other articles of war.

The Germans are all saved. They have only 500 guns and 100000 men, and command the batteries, can do they the moment they open fire. Paris has two months' supply of food.

The French Army.

A correspondent writes from Vendome that neither of the French armies commanded by Chauzy and Bourbaki number less than 100,000 men, and are in a position to make an attack of 100,000 men.

The appearance of the French army is favorable. Many of the men are small in stature, but the majority are large and well.

Peace Prospects.

London, Dec. 20-19 A. M. The prospects of peace are looking much improved. The French are in a position to demand what they want, and the Prussians will soon be adopted.

Military Movements.

Military movements in the field continue, and the French are endeavoring to concentrate. One German army is falling back before Baudier.

Later advices from Paris say there has been no fighting around the city since the first of December. The people had received news from the outside to the 11th instant.

Prince William, of Baden, Wounded.

Raleigh, N. C., Dec. 20.

At eleven o'clock to-day the Board of Managers appointed by the House to conduct the impeachment of Gov. Holden, at the request of the Speaker and members of the House, adjourned to meet again to-morrow.

The German army is still in the field, and the French are endeavoring to concentrate. One German army is falling back before Baudier.

Later advices from Paris say there has been no fighting around the city since the first of December. The people had received news from the outside to the 11th instant.

Prince William, of Baden, Wounded.

London, Dec. 20.

Commander Ashby was last by a party of friends on his arrival at Liverpool from America, and was subsequently entertained at a banquet given in his honor at the Clarence Hotel.

The Alabamians Chained.

The Manchester Post in an editorial on the Alabamians, refers to the services to the United States at the British Court, Adams and Reeddy Johnson, and says the recent attack of America is conducted by the record of her own Ministers.

An American naval captain is at Constantinople manufacturing torpedoes and other materials of war for use in case of war against Russia.

LUXEMBURG.

Luxembourg, Dec. 20. The Kreuzbergen desire that Prussia has any designs on Luxembourg, and affirms that Prussia has resolved to submit to arbitration her complaints relative to the violation of neutrality by the government of the Duchy, with a view to a claim for indemnity.

The King of Holland, in a letter to the Government of Luxembourg, says: "Let us together defend the Treaty of 1867, and the honor and independence of the Duchy."

Berlin, Dec. 20. The Diet of Luxembourg has voted to pay its full share of the amount due for the abolition of the Scheldt dues.

WHITEHORN.

St. Cloud, Dec. 20. The King of Wurttemberg opened the Chambers yesterday. In his speech he referred to the glorious campaign of the Germans. Their companionship in arms had been the cause of political unity, failing in which the war would have been a mere contest for political unity, the year last concurring. The German troops were 300 in killed and wounded. Among the wounded was Prince William, of Baden, who was shot through the cheek.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE.

Chicago, Dec. 20. A fire occurred at the Standard Oil Company, Illinois, on Sunday, which destroyed property valued at over $100,000. The principal losers were J. C. Waterman, $60,000; insured for $10,000. J. S. Waterman, $10,000; insurance $10,000. The fire was largely engrossed by the sale of a good many Warren &amp; Elwood, loss $80,000. The fire was of small amount. There were a number of smaller losses. The insurance companies paid about $32,000. The fire is supposed to have originated in the explosion of coal gas in a store, throwing the fire on a bed which stood near.

COLD WEATHER.

A cold surprise to have succeeded the snow storm, and through the northwest. The streets of Milwaukee, Madison, Wisconsin, and several other points, the thermometer is down to zero.

FIRE—COLD WEATHER.

San Francisco, Dec. 10. The Eagle Smelting Works, at Hamilton, Nevada, were accidentally burned yesterday, but the damage was not great.
